ORDER

_____This matter comes before the Court on the parties' Joint Motion to Suspend Deadlines for Meeting of the Parties and Filing of Joint Pretrial Statement, Trial Briefs and Motions In Limine (Doc. #222) filed on November 26, 2008. The parties seek to extend the pretrial deadlines¹ left unchanged by the Court's Notice (Doc. #220) canceling the Final Pretrial Conference and January 2009 trial term "until further notice or order resetting the hearings." Recognizing that resolution of the pending dispositive motions will greatly narrow the issues for trial and finding good cause, the Court will grant the motion as provided below.

Accordingly, it is now

ORDERED:

¹On July 25, 2008, the Court entered an Order (Doc. #187, p. 7 ¶ 6) resetting certain deadlines.

The parties' Joint Motion to Suspend Deadlines for Meeting of the Parties and Filing of Joint Pretrial Statement, Trial Briefs and Motions In Limine (Doc. #222) is GRANTED as follows, assuming issues remain unresolved by the dispositive motion:

A. The parties shall meet in person to prepare the Joint Final Pretrial Statement within TEN (10) DAYS of the ruling on the pending dispositive motions;

B. The parties shall file the Joint Final Pretrial Statement within TEN (10) DAYS of the meeting to prepare the document;

C. The deadline to file all other motions, including Motions in limine and trial briefs, is stayed pending the entry of an Order resetting the Final Pretrial Conference and trial term for this case.

DONE AND ORDERED at Fort Myers, Florida, this 1st day of December, 2008.

JOHN E. STEELE
United States District Judge
